

CONTENTS

Preface .....	viii
About the Contributors .....	ix
Introduction .....	xi

Part I. Perspectives on Drug Use and Addiction..... 1

1. Why People Take Drugs ..... 4
Andrew Weil
 Andrew Weil suggests that drug use results from people's natural desire to alter their levels of consciousness.
2. A Sociological Theory of Drug Addiction ..... 14
Alfred R. Lindesmith
 The late Dr. Lindesmith argues that opiate addiction results from the conscious awareness that continued drug use is necessary to prevent the pain associated with opiate withdrawal.
3. The Use of Marijuana for Pleasure: A Replication of Howard S. Becker's Study of Marijuana Use ..... 27
Michael L. Hirsch, Randall W. Conforti, and Carolyn J. Graney
 A generation ago, sociologist Howard Becker believed that deriving pleasure from marijuana was a learned process. He suggested also that marijuana users progressed through a series of stages. Hirsch and his colleagues test Becker's theory in their study of marijuana users, many of whom are college students.

Part II. Legal Drugs ..... 37

4. A Brief History of Alcohol ..... 40
Harvey A. Siegal and James A. Inciardi
 A history of the likely origins of alcohol use and its early evolution are described.
5. High Anxiety ..... 46
Consumer Reports
 A critical look at the addictive nature of some types of tranquilizers and sleeping pills.
- * 6. 22.2 Million American Women Just Don't Get It ..... 55
Anne Colston Wentz
 An article about cigarette smoking by women, a behavior that continues despite the numerous health risks and the informal social stigma with which it is associated.

* Indicates chapters that are new to the Second Edition.

- *7. Asia's Having One Huge Nicotine Fit ..... 57
Philip Shenon
 Philip Shenon describes cigarette consumption in Asia and other regions as well as the marketing strategies used by U.S. tobacco companies to bolster sales.

Part III. Marijuana ..... 61

8. Marijuana: Assassin of Youth ..... 64
Harry J. Anslinger and Courtney Ryley Cooper
 Written during the 1930s, this article argues against the use of marijuana, noting the harmful effects of the drug.
9. Cannabis Retail Markets in Amsterdam ..... 70
Dirk J. Korf
 A description of Amsterdam coffee shops that cater to users of marijuana and hashish.
10. Marijuana: The Forbidden Medicine. .... 77
Lester Grinspoon and James Bakalar
 The authors report on the medical benefits of marijuana.
11. Are There Dangers to Marijuana? ..... 84
Marc A. Schuckit
 Dr. Schuckit offers several negative effects for users of marijuana.

Part IV. Narcotics, Injection Drug Use, and HIV/AIDS ..... 89

12. Becoming a Heroin Addict. .... 94
Dan Waldorf
 The late Dan Waldorf describes the social setting that surrounds the initial use of heroin.
13. Taking Care of Business—The Heroin Addict's Life on the Street ..... 105
Edward Preble and John J. Casey
 The authors describe the daily activities of heroin users and suggest that use of the drug creates a sense of purpose in users' lives.
14. Chasing the Dragon ..... 119
Marc A. Schuckit
 Dr. Schuckit describes opiate users who inhale vapors and compares this group to those who inject.

* Indicates chapters that are new to the Second Edition

15. Kickin' Down to the Street Doc: Shooting Galleries in the San Francisco Bay Area . . . . . 122
Sheigla Murphy and Dan Waldorf
A description of formal and informal urban drug-shooting havens and their purposes.
16. Needle Access as an AIDS Prevention Strategy for IV Drug Users: A Research Perspective . . . . . 132
Merrill Singer, Ray Irizarry, and Jean J. Schensul
A description of needle-exchange programs, their benefits, and suggestions to improve community support for such programs.

Part V. Cocaine . . . . . 151

- *17. America's First Cocaine Epidemic . . . . . 155
David F. Musto
The author discusses cocaine use during the 1800s and early 1900s.
18. How Women and Men Get Cocaine: Sex-Role Stereotypes and Acquisition Patterns . . . . . 161
Patricia J. Morningstar and Dale D. Chitwood
The authors compare sex-role stereotypes with reported drug-lifestyle behaviors among male and female cocaine users.
- *19. African Americans, Crack, and Crime . . . . . 170
James A. Inciardi and Hilary L. Surratt
The authors explore the relationship between ethnicity and crack-cocaine use.
- *20. Cocaine, Crack, and the Criminalization of Pregnancy . . . . . 181
Hilary L. Surratt and James A. Inciardi
A critical account of the criminal justice system's response to pregnant substance users.

Part VI. Hallucinogenic Drugs . . . . . 191

- *21. The New Psychedelic Culture: LSD, Ecstasy, 'Rave' Parties, and the Grateful Dead . . . . . 194
Robert B. Millman and Ann Bordwine Beeder
The authors describe the social context of certain drug use subcultures.

* Indicates chapters that are new to the Second Edition.

22. Ethnographic Notes on Ecstasy Use Among Professionals . . . . . 199
Marsha Rosenbaum, Patricia Morgan, and Jerome E. Beck
 Marsha Rosenbaum and her colleagues examine patterns of Ecstasy use among working professionals, noting that stressful lifestyles contribute to drug usage among these individuals.
23. Misuse and Legend in the 'Toad Licking' Phenomenon . . . . . 205
Thomas Lyttle
 The author describes the alarmist views by media, law enforcement officials, and drug treatment experts regarding the alleged toad-licking craze.

Part VII. Drugs and Crime . . . . . 217

24. The Drugs-Crime Connection . . . . . 220
David N. Nurco, Timothy W. Kinlock, and Thomas E. Hanlon
 A methodological critique of various studies that explore the links between drug use and crime.
25. Heroin Use and Street Crime . . . . . 235
James A. Inciardi
 This street-based study suggests that the relationship between drugs and crime is much more complex than previously thought.
26. The Drugs/Violence Nexus: A Tripartite Conceptual Framework . . . . . 243
Paul J. Goldstein
 Paul Goldstein suggests three methods by which drug use and violence are connected.
- *27. Rohypnol: The Date-Rape Drug? . . . . . 254
Christine A. Saum
 The recent history of Rohypnol use in the United States is discussed, addressing its link with sexual violence.

Part VIII. Treatment . . . . . 263

- *28. Alcoholics Anonymous . . . . . 266
Karen McElrath
 A brief overview of the history, philosophy, organization, and program components of Alcoholics Anonymous.

* Indicates chapters that are new to the Second Edition.

29. The Therapeutic Community for Substance Abuse:
Perspective and Approach . . . . . 271
George De Leon
A description of the methods by which therapeutic communities operate.
30. Methadone Maintenance: A Theoretical Perspective . . . . . 280
Vincent P. Dole and Marie Nyswander
The authors report findings from their early study of heroin users treated with methadone.

Part IX. Policy Considerations . . . . . 285

31. Drug Prohibition in the United States: Costs,
Consequences, and Alternatives . . . . . 288
Ethan A. Nadelmann
Ethan Nadelmann offers several reasons for the failure of the "War on Drugs," and suggests that the legalization of certain drugs is the better alternative.
32. Against the Legalization of Drugs . . . . . 304
James Q. Wilson
Political scientist James Q. Wilson argues against the legalization of heroin and cocaine, stressing that drug availability affects consumption and that counter-arguments should not be based on comparisons between illegal drugs and alcohol.
33. Hawks Ascendant: The Punitive Trend of American
Drug Policy . . . . . 314
Peter Reuter
Peter Reuter discusses three alternative views for addressing the illegal drug problem.

Subject Index* . . . . . 339